The author describes Aunt Pegg as being "Leering, sneering, peering" and this tri-colon suggest that aunt Pegg is always watching and commenting and lingering around the children. This is effective as it shows how annoying and Clingy the aunt is. This makes the reader feel angry as they could most probably relate to this and they know how insufferable it is.

Aunt Pegg is described as having "eyes on sticks", meaning she see's everything that happens. This is effective as it gives us the impression of how alert and focussed she is all the time. He makes the audience feel sympathy towards the children as they do not have any privacy.
